DATE: 3 June 1958

FROM : Chief, Orientation Faculty, IS

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #22, 28 May - 3 June 1958

1. Significant Items:

Nothing to report.

2. Other Activities:A. Intelligence Orientation

1. Intelligence Orientation #21 ended on 29 May. The examination results showed a higher percentage of Excellent and Satisfactory grades, and a lower percentage of failures, than has been the case in the last three courses.

2. [] has prepared the tentative schedule for IO #22 and expects to have the final program ready by the end of this week.

3. Two of our staff members are preparing lectures normally given by outside speakers for IO #22. [] will be lecturing again on "Formulation of National Security Policy", in place of [] will lecture on "Support Structure of CIA" in place of []

B. Exhibits

1. Thanks in part to the promptness of work crews supplied by the Supply and Services Section, the two exhibits, which were held on the same day last week were set up rapidly and ran smoothly. On the invitation of [] visited the morning exhibit. Another visitor was [] of the Strategic Intelligence School. The school hopes to send students to future exhibits on a regular basis. [] is working on this through appropriate channels.

2. Next exhibits are scheduled as follows:

Support Exhibit - 25 June

Intelligence Products Exhibit - 26 June

DD/I offices have been asked to submit names of IAC visitors to the latter exhibit by 12 June.

When the grades drop down, my staff worries, and wants to alter the cut-off point. I tell them no. Classes will fluctuate in ability. The instructors should teach as well as they can, & let the grades fall as they will.
